Access Capital Partners awarded mandate by South Korean Hana Financial Investment for infrastructure investments in Europe

European Private Assets specialist Access Capital Partners (“Access”) is pleased to announce that it signed a strategic partnership agreement with Hana Financial Investment to deploy capital in infrastructure assets in Europe.

Access’ Managing Partners, Agnès Nahum and Philippe Poggioli commented: “We are pleased that Hana Financial Investment has placed its trust in Access. Our pan-European reach and solid infrastructure investment expertise ensure we are well positioned to identify the most attractive investment opportunities, while developing our Asian investor base. We are happy with our cooperation with Scala Fund Advisory on this successful partnership.”

Lee Jin-guk, president of Hana Investment Corp., said, “We are very happy to be a strategic partner with Access Capital Partners, a leading asset management company.”
